Local Briefing

NEW CITY

Hugs for Hospice cards to benefit care agency

Throughout November, United Hospice of Rockland "Hugs for Hospice" signature cards will be available at various local businesses throughout Rockland.

Local businesses collect donations for the benefit of United Hospice in exchange for a hug. For a small donation, supporters may write the name of their friend or loved one on the card and post it at that location.

Proceeds support the care and services that the New City nonprofit agency provides for the seriously ill individuals and their loved ones.

For a list of participating locations, call United Hospice of Rockland at 845 634-4974 or visit its Web site, www.hospiceofrockland.org.

NYACK

Flag burning ceremony set for Veterans Day

A flag burning ceremony will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Nyack Memorial Park. American Legion Post 310 will retire worn American flags with proper honor and respect. The flag burning is open to the public, and flags can be brought in at the last minute. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at the legion post next to the park. All veterans are encouraged to attend the event by 10:30 a.m., at Post 310. The post is just south of the Nyack Memorial Park on Piermont Avenue.
